

Hispanic Studies: Culture and Ideas

Edited by
Claudio Canaparo

This series aims to publish studies in the arts, humanities and social sciences, the main focus of which is the Hispanic World. The series invites proposals with interdisciplinary approaches to Hispanic culture in fields such as history of concepts and ideas, sociology of culture, the evolution of visual arts, the critique of literature, and uses of historiography. It is not confined to a particular historical period.

Monographs as well as collected papers are welcome. Languages of publication are English, Spanish and Spanish-American.

Those interested in contributing to the series are invited to write with either the synopsis of a subject already in typescript or with a detailed project outline to either Dr Claudio Canaparo, Centre for Latin American Studies, School of Arts, Languages and Literatures, University of Exeter, Exeter EX4 4QH, UK, c.canaparo@exeter.ac.uk, or to Hannah Godfrey, Peter Lang Publishing, Evenlode Court, Main Road, Long Hanborough, Witney, Oxfordshire OX29 8SZ, UK, h.godfrey@peterlang.com.
